Re launch of monthly e-zine

All Ireland Youth Work Audit

CIYD is pleased to announce that following extensive consultation the first ever all Ireland Youth Audit for the Church of Ireland was launched before the summer. Amongst its findings the report notes...

The Church of Ireland on a weekly basis works with up to 26,000 young people (11-25) across a range of locations and youth ministry contexts.

Launch of report at Stormont

That this work is facilitated and supported by 3,000+ adult volunteers

That Church of Ireland dioceses per annum have involved with their ministries up to 17,500 young people.

UnLtd Sport Relief Make it Happen Awards

The Make it Happen grant programme funds young individuals aged 11 to 21 who have an idea of a sporting recreational or arts based project that can be used to develop community cohesion and/or address conflict resolution.

Funding of £500 to £10,000 per project is available and no project experience is necessary as UnLtd also provides a mentoring service and is interested in developing the skills of future social entrepreneurs. Money can be used to-

Wednesday, 7 October - Youth Workers training day focussing on 'Working with volunteers', at Edgehill College, Belfast.

To book a place please contact Sharon or Barbara on 02890660052.

Kilkenny College is the venue for this years ANOIS, an annual Irish Youth residential organised by the Church of Ireland Youth Department, which takes place from the 24th – 26th October 2009. The venue may have changed but none of the bits you love about ANOIS have.

The theme this year – Cannonball – is all about the adventure, the risk and the excitement of seeing God at work in us and the world around us.

The main messenger for ANOIS 2009 is Scott Evans, the Diocesan Youth Officer for Cashel and Ossory Diocese. Scott is a passionate, creative and extremely engaging speaker with a heart to wards a one off event and/or a lasting project. All new applications are welcome. The programme is open until March 2011 and all projects must be completed by this stage. Previous awardees can also apply for top up awards. You can also attend one of UnLtd's 'dragon's den' events to pitch an idea to the UnLtd Sport Relief Youth Panel get an on the spot decision.

inspire new thinking and faith in young people.

Worship at ANOIS 2009 will be led by Jeremy Casella, back by popular demand from last year. Jeremy is a singer / songwriter from Nashville, Tennessee in the US.

ANOIS 2009 will be full of all the usual fun and energy with offsite activities including karting, team challenges, paintball and horse riding. There will be the usual creative arts, challenging and topical workshops, the 'chill' zone and lots, lots more. New at the event this year is the 'ANOIS Factor'. If you think you have what it takes to be in the ANOIS Factor let us know when you apply to come.

The cost for ANOIS 2009, if you book before Wednesday 30th Sept, is €80. After this date the cost does rise to €100, all bookings must be received by Wednesday 14th October. Transport is available from numerous locations across the Republic of Ireland for only €20.
